IYRS School of Technology & Trades Application for Admissions

IYRS School of Technology & Trades

Instructions for Applying:

1. Complete the Application for Admissions in its entirety.
2. Email or mail images of your portfolio, recently completed works or relevant experience to admissions@iyrs.edu or mail to:

IYRS School of Technology & Trades
Attn: Admissions
449 Thames Street
Newport, RI 02840
3. Obtain and provide two professional letters of recommendation, preferably from an employer or school teacher. Letters can be prepared using the included cover sheet or sent directly to the IYRS Office of Admissions. Additionally, letters of recommendation will be accepted by email providing the reference comes directly from the recommender. Letters should be sent to admission@iyrs.edu.
4. Provide an official high school transcript, GED or college transcript. Applicants must demonstrate successful completion of the high school diploma. If an applicant has completed more than 15 college credits at the time of application, official college transcripts must also be received.
5. International student applicants should complete the Personal Statement within the application.

Once the above information is submitted to IYRS, students will be asked to complete an in-person interview with an admissions representative. The purpose of the interview is to share information with applicants, as well as learn more about an applicant's interest in their program of application and demonstrated aptitude for successful completion of that program. Applicants who are unable to travel to IYRS may make arrangements for an alternate phone or Skype interview.

Once an applicant has completed their interview, the application will be submitted to the admissions committee for review and an admissions decision will be provided to the applicant as soon as possible.

If you have questions or concerns regarding the admissions process, please contact the Office of Admissions by email at admissions@iyrs.edu or by phone at 401-848-5777.

Students are selected without regard to national or ethnic origin, race, sex, age, sexual orientation or religion and must be capable of benefiting from the training offered. Applicants must be seeking job training. All persons applying for admission must have completed high school or the equivalency and have the ability to understand written and oral instruction in the English language.

IYRS is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Career Schools/Colleges (ACCSC). <http://www.accsc.org/>

APPLICANT'S STATEMENTS

Instructions: Provide your responses to the statements and questions listed on this form. You may use this form or attach a separate response generated electronically.

1. How did you develop an interest in the program(s) to which you are applying?

2. How will successful completion of the program support your career and personal goals?

3. What activities and experiences have you had that have prepared you to be a productive contributor in the program? (For example, projects, team participation, employment, hobbies, volunteer work or other activities that you have experienced.)

4. Successful involvement in the IYRS programs does not require experience but students need to be able to measure, compute basic math functions, follow written and verbal directions, meet deadlines and assume self-responsibility for achieving good quality results. Discuss the projects and experiences that specifically demonstrate your skills and competencies related to the above. (For example, building projects, employment, school, volunteer work or other activities.)

5. Is there anything else that you would like the admissions committee to know during the review of your application?
